PrO UNLIMITED ANNOUNCES WINNERS OF THE ANNUAL GLOBAL SUPPLIER AWARDS

BOCA RATON, FL: MARCH 26, 2008: PrO Unlimited, Inc., an international provider of Human Capital Management Services, today announced the winners of the Annual Global Supplier Awards in recognition of its outstanding staffing supplier partners for 2007. The winning companies have all been key contingent-workforce suppliers, selected from a field of more than a thousand providers servicing PrO's Fortune 1000 clients. The winning suppliers were those who achieved the highest customer service rankings on PrO Unlimited's 30-point Supplier Scorecard and were voted on by PrO's onsite teams throughout the country. These companies consistently deliver excellence in contingent staffing and/or project fulfillment across multiple PrO clients.

netPolarity, Inc. based in San Jose, California, was again awarded the top honor, the Platinum Partner Award. As a partner who has met and exceeded PrO client needs at multiple locations netPolarity has received the platinum award 3 years in a row. The outstanding support and service they continue to provide to a wide array of clients and locations contributed to a unanimous decision.

Terrie Weinand, EVP & COO of PrO Unlimited commented, "Successful managed service programs have to have committed, best-in-class staffing suppliers, and I know our clients enjoy significantly higher levels of service, including higher quality candidates and faster fill times, because of the dedication to their craft exhibited by firms like those we recognize today as our 2008 Supplier Award winners".

Gold Partner honors were given to Aerotek, Inc., Kforce Professional Staffing and TAC Worldwide. Two of the gold winners, Aerotek, Inc. and Kforce Professional Staffing were awarded this honor for outstanding staffing services last year as well. TAC Worldwide has provided valued domestic and global staffing services.

Silver Partner Awards went to The Judge Group and The Tuttle Agency, which have provided strong support in the technical/pharmaceutical and financial services areas respectively.

These awards recognize a select group of the suppliers that perform well and also excel in the industries that they support. Our Supplier Award Winners for 2007 continually act as best in class partners to PrO's VMS solution and enable our clients to obtain quality staffing at competitive rates in multiple disciplines and locations. Our success can be directly attributed to the strong supplier relationships we maintain with a pool of top performing suppliers through our vendor neutral supplier management program.
